DAY 2 ATHENS

Meals : Exclusive Halal Half-board arrangements.

Sightseeing : This Morning we will bring a visit to the beautiful Islamic Greece heritage Museum of " Benaki " .. The Museum of Islamic Art in Athens is a real gem of the city, which can help you to trace back to the formation of Islamic culture without leaving Greece. It was founded by Antonis Benakis in order to commemorate his father Emmanuel Benakis, who was a famous Athenian entrepreneur and a mayor some time later. The Benaki Museum of Islamic art is located in a neoclassical building next to the Kerameikos cemetery and the Doric temple of Hephaestus. Once inside, visitors can better understand the changing cultural and political boundaries of Greece within the broader history of the Ottoman Empire. An interesting fact: in 1996, during the reconstruction work, ruins had been discovered in the basement of the museum. Historians identified them as the remains of the ancient Athenian city wall and a sepulcher. Subsequently, the design of the Museum has undergone some changes, so that the newly discovered finds fit harmoniously into the existing ensemble and atmosphere. The museum's exposition includes more than 8000 items that date from the 7th to the 17th century.. After our Museum visit we will visit the grand Mosque & Islamic Center of Athens for our prayers and a meet and greet with the local community before we continue our journey.. Late afternoon after our prayers we will depart to the beautiful Acropolis. The Acropolis of Athens and its monuments are universal symbols of the classical spirit and civilization and form the greatest architectural and artistic complex bequeathed by Greek Antiquity to the world.

Since the end of Ottoman rule in Greece, the 2-story building has served as barracks, a prison and a warehouse, among other things. Most recently, Tzistarakis Mosque was used as a branch of the Museum of Greek Folk Art. After extensive renovation work, the historic rooms in Tzistarakis Mosque are now part of the Museum of Modern Greek Culture. Even if the museum itself is one of the lesser known museums in Athens, a visit to the Mosque offers interesting insights. As one of the most important remaining testimonies from the Ottoman period in Athens, the former church also provides an interesting insight into this period of Greek history in addition to the exhibits. ## DAY 5 ATHENS - CAPO SOUNION - ATHENS

Meals : Exclusive Halal Half-board arrangements.

Sightseeing : After breakfast we will continue our Journey with a beautiful visit to the coastal villages of Capo Sounion. Cape Sounion is noted as the site of ruins of an ancient Greek temple of Poseidon, the so-called false god of the sea in classical mythology.

The remains are perched on the headland, surrounded on three sides by the sea. According to legend, Cape Sounion is the spot where Aegeus, king of Athens, leapt to his death off the cliff, thus giving his name to the Aegean Sea. The story goes that Aegeus, anxiously looking out from Sounion, despaired when he saw a black sail on his son Theseus's ship, returning from Crete. This led him to believe that his son had been killed in his contest with the dreaded Minotaur, a monster that was half man and half bull. The Minotaur was confined by its owner, King Minos of Crete, in a specially designed labyrinth.

The temple of Poseidon was constructed in approx. 440 BC, over the ruins of a temple dating from the Archaic Period. It is perched above the sea at a height of almost 60 m. The design of the temple is a typical hexastyle i.e. it had a front portico with 6 columns.
